TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW.

BY GERALD MARSEY.

High hopes that turned like Stars sub-lime Go down i' the Heavens of Freedom, And true hearts perish in the time We bitterlies: need 'em;

But never sit we down and say
There's nothing left but sorrow;
We walk the Wilderness To day,
The Fromised Land To-merrew.

Cur birds of song are silent now,
There are no flowers blooming;
Yet life is in the frozen b ugh,
And Freedom's Spring is coming:
And Freedom's tide comes up alway,
Tho' we may stand in sorrow;
And our good Bark a-ground To-day,
Shall float again To-morrow.

'Tis weary walching, wave by wave, And yet the tide beaves onward; We climb, like corels, grave by grave, To pave a pathway Sun ward: We are beaten back in many a fray, But newer strength we borrow,
And where the Vanguard camps To-da,
The Rear shall rest To-morrow.

Through all the long dark night of years
The People's cry ascendeth,
And Earth is wet with blood and tears, But our meek sufference endeth The Few shall not for ever sway, The Many toil in sorrow, The Powers of Hell are strong To-day,

The Christ shall rise To-morrow. Though hearts brood o'er the Past, our

With smiling Futures glisten For, lo! our day bursts up the skies! Lean out your souls and listen! The world is rolling Freedom's way, And ripening with her sorrow; Keep heart! who bear the Cross To day, Shall wear the Crown To morrow.

O Youth ! flame-earnest, still aspire, With energies immortal! To many a heaven of Desire, Our yearning opes a portal.

And the 'Age wearies by the way,
And hearts break in the furrow,
We'll sow the golden grain To-day,—
The Harvest comes To-morrow.

Build up heroic lives, and all Be like a sheathen sabre, Ready to flash cut at God's call, O Chivalry of Labor!
Triumph and Toll are twins, the tkey
Be singly born in Serrow;
And 'tis the martyrdom To-day

Brings victory To-morrow.

HE IS SAFE.

Ex-President Hayes had on his farm clothes the other day when he met a lightning-red man driving along the road.

"Good morning," said the ex-Pres-"The same to you," responded the

"Do you put up lightning rods?"
"That's my business, sir."

"Well, I want one."

"All right, sir, I ll be glad to accommodate you at the usual discount to farmers. What is the hame, please?

"R. B. Hayes." "What, not the one that used to be President and the one the papers occasionally refer to as a possible candidate again?" e the sain "Well, now look here, Mr. Hayes, I don't usually work against myself, but I've got some honesty, if I am a lightning rod agent, and I don't believe I'd be doing the fair thing to put up a rod for you."

"Why? I'm good pay."
"I know that, but I've been watching the political heavens pretty closely, and there ain't any more danger of the lightning striking you than there is of Bob Ingersoli joining the Methodist church."
